

Character Reference – Person of Good Standing

This form is to be completed by a person who has known the applicant for at least two years. It should be sent directly to the Council by the referee.

A person of good standing can be a member of the clergy, a member of a profession such as a teacher, another health professional, a member of the police force, a lawyer, a senior manager of a company or government department, or similar. Character references will not be accepted from fellow students, persons living with you, midwifery lecturers, or close relatives.

This character reference is given in support of an application to be entered onto the New Zealand Register of Midwives. Section 16(d) of the Health Practitioners Competence Assurance Act 2003 states that an applicant for registration may only be registered as a health practitioner if they meet certain requirements. These are listed in Section One.
